Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

TIB The Independent BankersBank, N.A.

What we do

How does TIBNA protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We maintain other physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect this information and we limit access to information.

How does TIBNA collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or give us your contact information
- show your driver's license or open an account
- provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
